MIODOMIX & Ovo-Phospholipids: Translating Nature's Bioactive Compounds into Evidence-Based Therapeutic Nutrition

A Novel Integrative Approach for Neuroprotection,
Immunomodulation and Regenerative Medicine

Honey-Based Formulations with Medicinal Mushrooms & Ovo-Phospholipids

Honey-based formulations enhanced with medicinal mushrooms (Lion's Mane, Reishi, Cordyceps) and ovo-phospholipids.

Core Concept

Combining honey's natural bioactive matrix with mushroom-derived neuroprotective and immunomodulating compounds, plus egg-yolk phospholipids essential for neuronal membranes, mitochondria and systemic repair.

What We Developed

- NeuroBoost Honey – honey + dual Lion's Mane extract.
- Reishi Honey – immune & metabolic support.
- Cordyceps Honey – mitochondrial energy & vitality.
- Honey + Ovo-Phospholipids – premium neuro- and cardiometabolic formula.

Why It Matters

A new, compact model of evidence-based therapeutic nutrition bridging apitherapy, mycotherapy and phospholipid science for modern regenerative medicine.

Premium Functional Products

Clinically-oriented honey formulations combining medicinal mushrooms, bioactive honey and ovo-phospholipids — positioned at the intersection of therapeutic nutrition, neuroregeneration and immune health.

Unique Value Proposition

- Proprietary extraction and formulation (dual-extract Lion's Mane; high-purity ovo-phospholipids), developed based on M. Radke's academic work and peer-reviewed by Prof. Grela, University of Life Sciences in Lublin (Poland)
- Scientifically backed (clinical expertise of Prof. Trziszka (University of Life Sciences in Wroclaw PL); research-based OVLHoney line; OvoCura Research Project).
- High consumer demand in cognitive health, immunity, energy & longevity markets.
- Clean-label, natural, evidence-driven — fits medical and premium retail channels.

Market Fit

Ideal for clinics, wellness centers, rehabilitation programs, high-end pharmacies, and international functional food markets.

Scalable Portfolio

Modular product line enabling expansion into:

Neuro, Immune, Metabolic, Energy, Longevity categories.
